IMPORTANT CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN PASSENGER TRAIN SCHEDULES

Will Become Effective On Local Division Within
a Few Days

TWO TRAINS ARE TAKEN OFF

Important changes in the running of passenger trains on the Monongahela Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be a reality within a short time, likely on the 13th inst., as foreshadowed in the Mail of Thursday.

Reports from Pittsburg indicate that changes will be made in the following trains:

No. 7718—Pittsburg to Brownsville, 8:10 a. m., withdrawn between West Brownsville Junction and Crucible, daily except Saturday and Sunday.

No. 7719—Brownsville to Pittsburg, 8:34 a. m., withdrawn between West Brownsville Junction and Crucible, daily except Saturday and Sunday.

No. 7704—Pittsburg to Brownsville, leaving 6:25 a. m., changed to keep out of Brownsville.

No. 7723—Fairmont to Pittsburg, leaving 7:15 a. m., changed to keep out of Brownsville.

No. 7808—Pittsburg to Brownsville, leaving at 9:25 a. m., changed to leave at 10:15 a. m.

No. 7810—Pittsburg to Brownsville, leaving at 11:05 a. m., withdrawn. (This train now goes through Charlevoi and returns through Charlevoi at 5:50 each evening.)

No. 7814—Brownsville to Pittsburg, leaving at 3:10 changed to leave at 2:10 p. m. This is a Uniontown train.

No. 7825—Brownsville to Pittsburg, leaving at 1:12 p. m., changed to 2 p. m.

No. 7827—Brownsville to Pittsburg, leaving at 4:12 p. m., changed to 4:25 p. m.

No. 7831—Leaving Uniontown at 5:15 p. m., changed to leave at 4:15 p. m.

No. 7833—Fairmont to Pittsburg, leaving at 4:12 p. m., changed to add stops at Roscoe, Allentown, West Monessen and Dravosburg, arriving at Pittsburg about 8:20 p. m. This train will likely carry the passengers that formerly traveled on 7829.

Under the new schedule but one train each way has been eliminated, the noon train south and the 5:50 northbound in the evening. The changing of other runs is expected to so improve the service that passenger trains can keep on time, and in this way permit of the greater volume of freight trains, which at the present time need all the track privileges they can get in order to move the heavy offerings of freight received all along the line.

Notice to Taxpayers

State and County taxes can be paid to Fred W. Brady, Deputy Collector, until February 1st after which he will file liens.

IS APPOINTED AS FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

James L. Lockhart, a prominent business man of Washington has been appointed food administrator for Washington county by the Federal Food Administration the appointment being made by Howard Heinz of Pittsburg, State administrator. Mr. Lockhart will at once assume the duties of his office. Under the Food Control act he will have supervision of the food supply of this county and will secure the enforcement of any regulations governing food products.

TEN DEGREES BELOW ZERO

Brings Navigation on the River to a Complete
Standstill

NO PROSPECT OF A BREAK-UP

The thermometer registered 10 degrees below zero at Lock No. 4 this morning, and so far as navigation was concerned, there wasn't a thing doing. Navigation is at a standstill, and so far as known not a steamer has attempted to turn a wheel along this part of the river.

The Vesta steamers which went up the river Wednesday morning got as far as Vesta No. 1, where they are ice bound, with no immediate prospects of release. The Duquesne is tied up at Fayette City without a sufficient amount of coal on the boat to keep up steam. The Captain had to have coal hauled to the steamer in order to keep the fires burning. The Vesta boats are having stores hauled to them by sleds, deliveries being made over the ice to the boats.

Capt. Richard Herman, of the steamer Sailor, was in Charlevoi on Thursday for the purpose of getting teams to go to Bentleyville to secure suitable lumber to rebuild the wheels of the Sailor and other of the boats. The wheels on all of these steamers had been badly battered, and would have to be repaired before they would be ready for any further service. The steamers E. F. Jones and Aliquippa, which attempted to reach Pittsburg with tow, got as far as Glassport, where they went to the bank, to await more favorable weather conditions.

It is not likely that any attempt will be made to do any steamboating until after the ice has been cleared from the river, which may be some time yet.

A strict embargo has been placed on all freight out of Pittsburg, except coal, coke, iron ore and fluxstone, to continue until freight conditions improve.

YOUTHFUL KNITTER MAKES GOOD RECORD

Paul High, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William High, of Fallowfield avenue, has made quite a reputation as a knitter, having already completed one scarf and a sweater, completing the latter garment Thursday evening. He is now turning his attention to knitting socks, all of the articles being turned over to the Charlevoi Chapter of the American Red Cross when completed.

Those in charge of the active work for the Red Cross would like to interest more of the young folks of Charlevoi in this great work, for there is need for every knitted article that can be produced. The demand for sweaters, socks, scarfs, wristlets and helmets is continuous, and if the younger boys and girls of the community would give of their time in this commendable work the output of the local Chapter would be considerably increased.

BASKET BALL SEASON OPENS THIS EVENING

The Charlevoi high school basketball team will open its 1918 season with the Canonsburg team in the high school gymnasium this evening. The Canonsburg team is the champion of the county, having won the title over Washington last spring. The local team is reported in good shape and expect to give the visitors one of the hardest battles they have ever encountered. Coach Stahlman has the boys working in fine shape, and they have shown great improvement since playing the alumni game. The team this evening will be selected from the following players: Capt. Eagye, Weaver, Pollock, Manon, Wagner, Glunt, Parent and Hess.

DARK WINDOWS WAS THE RULE

Charlevoi experienced its first "lightless" night Thursday evening, and generally speaking it was a success. All window lights and advertising signs illuminated by electricity and on what is known as the "flat rate," were kept darkened all evening, thus conserving a great deal of power, and consequently resulted in the saving of some fuel. Any windows brilliantly illuminated or signs which continued to burn last night were getting their power through meters, and were not subject to the jurisdiction of the local power station. However, it is not improbable that some action may be taken to further conserve the electric power, even if it is sold through the meter. This will be a subject for further consideration on the part of the fuel administration, which may reach a decision on this important point within a short time.

Jacob Weaver, who voted for every President from James K. Polk to the present day, died at his home near Marianna on Thursday, aged 96 years.

TO ENFORCE THE PRICE OF FUEL

That the fuel administration proposes to enforce the price for coal at the mines as set by the government is shown by the arrest of a Mercer county operator, who is charged with selling his coal at a price beyond that fixed by the government. The operator in question is placed under bond of $5,000 for a hearing to be held at a later date. It is intimated that other arrests will be made in a short time, and that drastic methods will be taken by the government to compel an observance of the figures which were set by Dr. Garfield, the fuel administrator.

FRANCES WILLARD CLASS TO MEET THIS EVENING

The Frances Willard class of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Wagner on McKean avenue this evening with Mrs. Wegner and Mrs. H. E. Ewald as hostesses.

CHARLES A. BEAZELL DIES IN BELLE VERNON

Charles A. Beazell, a prominent resident and business man of Belle Vernon, died very suddenly at his home Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Beazell had suffered from a stroke some time previously, and on Thursday an additional attack proved fatal. He was 57 years of age. Mr. Beazell had been indisposed for a few days. He was born in Belle Vernon, Pa., Dec. 10, 1863, the son of the late John and Jane P. Beazell, and lived in that community all his life. At the time of his death he was engaged in the plumbing business. He was married September 6, 1900, to Miss Rose Chalfant, of Grindstone, and to them three children were born, Kenneth, Ella and Louise. Besides his widow and children he is survived by three brothers, W. H. in Warrensburg, Mo.; R. M. and H. N. of Belle Vernon, and two sisters, Mrs. W. S. Harvey, and Miss Alberta Beazell, of Belle Vernon. Mr. Beazell was a member of the board of health and the civic league of Belle Vernon, and of the Belle Vernon Lodge of Masons. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Methodist church, in charge of Rev. J. E. Taylor, after which the Masonic burial rites will be accorded, the deceased. Interment will be made in Belle Vernon cemetery.

Marble and Granite Display
Two car loads of granite and marble monuments, just unloaded, are now on display at the show room of the M. T. Crowley Marble and Granite Works, 325 McKean avenue.

Roland B. Greenwald, of Charlevoi now at the training camp at Chillicothe, Ohio and a member of the Supply Company has successfully passed the examination for the officers' training school, which is to be a part of the Eighty-third Division. The school opens on Saturday.

SWEATERS WILL BE PROVIDED FOR LOCAL BOYS IN SERVICE

YOUNG LADIES MEET WITH MISS MIGHT

The Young Ladies Circle of the First Presbyterian church were entertained by Miss Adeline Might at her home on Fifth street Thursday evening. The time was spent in knitting for the Red Cross. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her sister Mrs. Thomas G. Henderson. The next meeting of the circle will be at the home of Miss Lottie Kerpluweit on First street and Meadow avenue on January 15.

Parents or Relatives Can Secure It By Calling
on Red Cross

MUST SIGN DUPLICATE RECEIPT

The Charlevoi Chapter of the American Red Cross was recently in receipt of the following telegram from National headquarters: "Many Chapters are making shipments of knitted goods to camps at distant points.

"Please discontinue this and urge use of goods for nearby camps in accordance with instructions from Division Headquarters. Direct shipments from Chapters have left too much duplication and confusion. We are distributing from National Headquarters tens of thousands of sweaters where most needed, but calls are bound to continue for sometime, as demand still exceeds supply by several hundred thousand."

As a result of the decision of the War department not to include sweaters in the equipment furnished to soldiers, the Red Cross was unexpectedly called upon to outfit the army with sweaters.

Unfortunately in the distribution of sweaters, which some Chapters have endeavored to make themselves, some of the garments have been received at the front and some have been lost.

While it will be contrary to orders the Charlevoi Chapter wishes to emphasize this fact. It is prepared to furnish a sweater to any Charlevoi boy in the military service of the United States, if he has not already been provided with such a garment. If his parents or some responsible relative will call at the work room in the post office building, lay the facts before the ladies in charge and sign a duplicate receipt for a sweater it will be given. One of these receipts is sent to National Headquarters, while the other is kept on file at the local office, both as a measure of safety to the local Red Cross Chapter. Under these conditions there is no reason why any soldier boy from Charlevoi should be without one of these garments this cold weather.

The Red Cross throughout the country has responded nobly to the call for sweaters, and while many have been prepared, there is a demand for thousands more. This demand the Red Cross wants to meet, and will meet, because it wants every man to be cared for with one of these garments. Locally, therefore, the matter rests with the parents or relatives of Charlevoi men now in the army, and any deficit will be taken care of if it is only made known at the local headquarters.

Notice to Taxpayers.
All taxes must be paid before February 1st, 1918 or the tax collector will collect same according to law.

GERMANY'S RACIAL VANITY

A glance through a little book of collected German utterances before and after the beginning of this war—"Kultur Self-Revealed"—fills the reader with amazement that such prodigious racial vanity could possibly exist. The utterance includes those of high officials, ecclesiastics and newspaper editors as well as of Treitschke, the prophet of tribalism; Nietzsche, the apostle of ruthlessness; and Bernhardi, the high-priest of ambition and world-dominion. Think, for example of a clergyman, Pastor W. Lehmann, declaring that "the German soul is God's soul; it shall and will rule over mankind." Think of a German professor (Engelbrecht) finding a "deep meaning" in the saying of a little boy at the outbreak of the war, "God will help us, for He is a German." There is much more and worse of the same sort. Prof. Sommer for example, announcing his discovery in the writings of Nietzsche "the tidings that there should be born from us the Son of God, whom in his language he called the Superman."

With such blasphemous vanity obsessing the German mind, no wonder Pastor Tolzien found England a Judas entering the war "to earn the thirty pieces of silver," no wonder Pastor Munch saw "Germany itself transformed into a suffering Christ," no wonder Dr. Presuss saw the god-like German people "experiencing a repetition of the Passion of Christ." Pastor Rump announced that "our defeat would also mean the defeat of His Son in humanity," while others proclaimed the Germans as the "chosen people of God" in a far higher and more complete sense than was Israel of old. The non-ecclesiastical German militarist, to his credit be it said, does not mix any blasphemy with his lust of world-dominion. He merely longs to tread down the nations and says so in worldly phrase, though he accepts the doctrine that the Germans are immeasurably superior to all other peoples and that the blessings of Kultur will more than repay conquered nations for the loss of their independence, agreeing of course with Chamberlain (who purely happened to have an English father) that "no duty is more urgent than that of forcing the German language upon the world."

Unhappy world! What greater disaster could befall the United States in case of their defeat? Even a German President, German governors of our States, the confiscation of all our property, slavery in order to pay the last farthing of tribute, would be relatively mild afflictions. To have the German language forced upon us would take rank in its tragic hideousness with the universal insecurity of our women. This is no nightmare of substantial basis. With a weekly paper for German youth in January, 1913, describing wars of expansion
as "the most august and sacred of human activities," and with even Maximilian Harden as far back as 1911 asserting that the "bustle arrogance" of other nations "releases us from all our treaty obligations" and forces Germany "to revive the Prussian policy of conquest," we may know what to expect if we do not rise to the urgent need and win this war.

BUYING WITH LIBERTY BONDS

Secretary McAdoo asks merchants to discontinue taking Liberty Bonds for goods and points out that this practice defeats one of the important ends of the Liberty loans should serve. These bonds are looked to by the government quite as much for the conservation of labor and material as for the supplying of money to the treasury.

The money you lend the government is helpful only so far as it enables the government to buy things and employ labor. If you use the bond to buy goods you do not save your money you spend it; and having spent it yourself you have prevented the government from having $50 or $100 worth of material and labor employed in making the object you bought. Moreover generally the merchant has to sell these bonds immediately and large sales that must be made immediately depress the price of the bonds.

"SO MANY CALLS"

The soldier threaded his somewhat mistakenly way back to the colonel's dugout. He had been in half a dozen skirmishes with the enemy in as many weeks. He was still alive, but somewhat scratched and wearied from crawling in and out of shell craters
and through barbed wire.

He entered the dugout and saluted with click of heels and hand to captains. "Colonel," he said, "I think I will have to quit. The battles are getting to be so many. It's rather too much for a good thing. I have given about 1000 of time and strength and to this war. I'm going home."

No, the incident didn't happen. But why shouldn't it? There are lots of civilians here at home turning down
Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., and Liberty Loan solicitors because the "calls are so many."—Chicago Post.

TO THE MANAGER --

The failure of the LADIES' SUIT crop last year
turned manufacturers of suits to making LADIES' COATS instead. This change introduced a period of RIGOROUS competition among coat-makers from which has fallen an avalanche of the most gorgeous STYLES, the most ravenous COLORS and MIXTURES and the most RIDICULOUS PRICES that the trade in this country has EVER heard of!

Of course, only the very BIGGEST, the most INFLU-ENTIAL and the most POWERFUL GROUPS FINANCIALLY, could afford to grab a juicy slice of this business at a late hour in the COAT season, so we "got in"! We got in early in everything: SELECTION, QUANTITY and PRICE!
And the result of our judgment and INSTANT ACTION is our ability at this time to offer to the women of AMER-ICA in the true spirit of ECONOMY, the GREATEST -- yes, without a shadow of doubt -- the most STUNNING free-open and PUBLIC SALE of LADIES' and MISSES COATS that they have EVER seen, or will ever see AGAIN!

WE BOUGHT FOR SPOT CASH TO SELL ON CREDIT!

Make no mistake in price-marking these coats. The prices attached are actually the PRICES at which they are to SELL! -- not at which they are bought, and the QUALITY -- sell, we put it up to you as a judge: the QUALITY and WORKMANSHIP YOU CANNOT OVERSTATE IN YOUR ADVERTISING!

Go the LIMIT! You have something to offer here
that NO other retailer in your city CAN EVER TOUCH!

NORTH CHARLEROI

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carson, Lockview on New Year's eve a very pleasant surprise stag party was tendered Mr. Carson in honor of his birthday. He was induced to leave his home early in the evening and upon his return found his home invaded with a jolly bunch of his fellowmen. After the surprise, the evening was spent in card play.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. M. Roberts. Rices Landing and Mrs. C. Treasure of Mopessen. Mr. Carson was presented with a leather comfort chair by his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Johnson of Rices Landing are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gaskill and children and Gomer Williams were callers in Belle Vernon.

Mrs. C. E. Deviling and children of Appola are guests at the home of the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hall.

Notice to the Public!

The Pittsburgh Railways Company has this day filed with the Public Service Commission a new schedule of rates and fares, effective January 22, 1918, increasing all present day fares. The new schedule provides for a fare of 5¢ cents, when tickets are used, or 6 cents, when cash fare is paid. In order to induce passengers to have the exact fare ready that delays, congestion and annoyance in loading may be saved, a coupon of a redeemable value of 4 cents will be issued when a dime is presented. Experience has shown that it is impossible for conductors on pay-as-you-enter cars to make change in pennies without causing great delays. These coupons will be redeemed by the company at their face value. Arrangements will also be made for the opening of stations at many different points for the redemption of these coupons. The location of these stations will be published later.

Tickets now in use will be redeemed by the company on or after January 22, 1918, at their face value or will be accepted for fare by conductors upon the payment of the additional fare required. A new form of ticket will be placed on sale prior to January 22, 1918.

Owing to the fact that the night fare situation is at present before the Public Service Commission and the Courts no change is made in the night car fare in the new schedule filed.

Copies of the new schedules are posted, are on file and may be seen by those interested at the general offices of the company, at offices of dispatchers and at offices where tickets are sold.

RED BLOODED

MEN WIN OUT

They Are Always on Top

It is a fact that the red blooded men and women are at the top in every walk of life. Men and women with the driving force of red blood, rich in Iron and Phosphates do things, they get results.

Red blooded women are the heads of the happiest and most contented homes, they have the will and the desire to be real companions and helpmates.

Leadership and happiness is only for the men and women who are willing to keep their blood and nerves strengthened and nourished with Iron and Phosphates.

A prominent doctor says, "It is a crime that so many men and women lack the rich, red blood and strong steady nerve to achieve their ambitions. It is all the more so because thin, watery blood is unnecessary, as rich, red blood and strong nerves are within the grasp of everyone. Phosphated Iron makes pure blood by making new blood. It gives strength, brings color to the cheeks, increases the weight and appetite, drives away the blues and those sleepless nights, steadies and renews your nervous energy, makes you feel like a live one once again."

There must be something to it. Everyone who tries it is loud in praise of Phosphated Iron, and you have got to know people these days.

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron it has been put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules. W. F. Henning and leading druggists everywhere.

Will Bring You Back to Boyhood, in the Comic Section of The Pittsburg Dispatch

Boy and Superboy

LOTS OF FUN for OLD AND YOUNG

These characters, created from his own boyhood experiences by Mark Twain, are known in every household. Their quaint, comical sayings, experiences and pranks are developed by artists for a full page in The Pittsburg Dispatch comic section, beginning Sunday, January 6th. The Dispatch is indeed fortunate to be able to add this splendid feature. It will bring pleasure and wholesome fun to every member of your family.

"Slim Jim," who amuses all and is a friend of every one, will continue to be a welcome full page comic feature.

"Hairbreadth Harry," with his page of wonderful escapades, will interest the grown-ups as well as children with his many thrills. "Raising the Family" will cause every one to smile at the trials and tribulations of the head of this interesting household.

For the little tots Rose O'Neill, for years the highest salaried woman artist in the world, draws for The Dispatch a full page "Kewpie" feature which furnishes them hours of delightful amusement.

No comic section published is as amusing or as clean as this one.
